Jennifer “Jenni” Ellison is an expert in government relations, adept at devising and implementing effective strategies for a diverse range of clients including government contractors, commercial businesses, and nonprofit organizations. Her remarkable career is highlighted by her support of international brands, skillfully navigating the complex terrains of Capitol Hill, federal agencies, and esteemed global institutions such as the World Bank and IMF.

Jenni's unique blend of corporate and governmental experience is a cornerstone of her approach. Highlights include leading the armored vehicle program for BMW North America, providing nearly a decade of strategic support to BAE Systems in their global defense ventures, and her invaluable experience as a former staffer on the House Armed Services Committee. Her profound understanding of both business and political landscapes enables Jenni to offer unparalleled insights and guidance to her clients as they embark upon advocacy, lobbying, and policy development efforts.

Jenni received her diploma in National Security & Strategic Studies from the United States Naval War College in Rhode Island and a B.A. in Diplomacy & Foreign Affairs from Miami University in Oxford, Ohio. She also studied at the John Dolibois European Center in Differdange, Luxembourg, and the Army War College in Carlisle, Pennsylvania.

Outside The Firm

Jenni lives on Capitol Hill with her husband, Scott, and two children, Thomas and Emma.
